The Best in Little Bay

This immaculate property in the stunning Little Bay is well designed, with high quality fixtures and fittings evident throughout. This property makes the most of outdoor living with an easy flow from inside to out, while enjoying touches of luxury. The impressive and unique views through every aspect. Everything has truly been thought of so you can park up and indulge yourself in the best of life. The bespoke, polished Matai flooring adds warmth and light that continues. A well-appointed kitchen has space for all and the attention to detail here second to none. The living spaces are spacious and capture the views through every window. A separate laundry, an extra sized garage and ample parking make this more than just an average bach with all the practical elements taken care of. Simply put, it's your own slice of paradise, all you could ever dream of. All within a 4 min walk to Little Bay Beach where you can put the boat in, some of the best fishing on the peninsula is but a stone's throw away or simply go for a swim.
